DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 22 and 24-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The scope of the claims cannot be determined because independent claims 22, 24, and 31 are replete with optional limitations.

Method claim 22 contains the optional steps “can be” and therefore the examiner cannot determine what method steps are actually being claimed, and what limitations define the invention. Method steps must be claimed in the active form, using active verbs such as “are” as in part c of claim 22.

Apparatus claims 24 and 31 contains the optional apparatus limitations “can be” and therefore the examiner cannot determine what apparatus limitations are actually being claimed, and what features define the invention. Apparatus limitations need to be claimed in the definite, using verbs such as “are”, as in part e of claim 24.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3653

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Focke (DE 198 41 526), as cited by the applicant.

The '526 patent teaches method for the transport of blanks as an insert to a pack in the region of a packaging machine for the production of the pack, characterized by the following features:

- a) two coupons, 23,1 lying adjacent to one another are successively produced by the severing of a double coupon,
- b) the coupons are conveyed lying adjacent to one another in two parallel transport paths, see figure 4,
- c) during transport the coupons are turned from a horizontal position to an upright position, see figure 3,
- d) the coupons transported along parallel paths of movement are then deflected by an approximately 90 degree angle with respect to the transport direction, see figure 3,
- e) the coupons are then turned back to the horizontal, figure 3,
- f) finally the coupons are each fed in parallel fashion to a coupon feeder for the immediate transfer to a pack, figure 3.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 22-39 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
